

Agentis Capital Advisors Appoints Arturo Recio to Lead the Firm's Global Expansion in the EMEA Region

Arturo Recio has been named as Agentis Capital Advisors' new Head of Europe & Middle East. Arturo is a senior Real Assets investment banking professional with more than 25 years of experience advising large corporates, pension and infrastructure funds and government clients on a broad range of strategic, M&A, capital markets and financing mandates.

Arturo was previously Global Co-Head of the Infrastructure and Real Estate Group at HSBC where he led the advisory, sector coverage and financing products within the Global Banking division and formed part of its Global Management Committee. Prior to that, Arturo worked in the Corporate Finance department of Citibank NA for clients in the power and utilities, consumer and retail, and infrastructure sectors.

"I am thrilled to have Arturo join Agentis and excited to have someone of his calibre lead our expansion in Europe and the Middle East " said Robert Van Belle, Managing Partner at Agentis. "Arturo's decision to join Agentis is a testament to what we are building, and the strong global reputation we have achieved through our client focussed approach to advisory services. With this new office established in London, Agentis is well positioned to accelerate our growth, and I am incredibly excited for this next chapter in our journey. "

Agentis Capital Advisors is a leading financial advisor servicing the infrastructure, mining, and industrials sectors. Agentis has experienced strong growth in its advisory business over the past decade. In response to increasing demand and an expanding global customer base, Agentis has launched a new office in the UK to service its European and Middle East clients.

"Agentis Capital is a growth platform ideally positioned for global expansion and I am incredibly excited to lead it through its next stage of development in Europe and Middle East. I look forward to working with the Partners and the wider team during this exciting next phase for Agentis Capital," said Arturo.

About Agentis Capital Advisors

Agentis Capital Advisors is a leading financial advisor specializing in the infrastructure, mining, and industrials sectors. Through its offices in North America and Europe, Agentis supports an impressive and fast growing global client list including pension and investment funds, public and private corporations, and government clients.

In 2021, Agentis client deals were recognized with a series of award nominations from IJInvestor, IJGlobal, Infrastructure Investor, Proximo, and Project Finance International (PFI).

Media Contacts

Jeff Wong
(604) 767 6063
jeff.wong@agentis.ca