For immediate release.

Richard Games joins Portland

Project and structured finance advisor Portland Advisers announces that Richard Games has joined its growing team of experienced professionals as it expands its global offering.

Richard has a background in UK banking. He has previously worked at Barclays Capital and WestLB focusing on PPPs and infrastructure transactions and at ING Bank where he was responsible for raising external capital and executing investments for a European infrastructure equity fund. For the last decade Richard has worked as an independent consultant, acting as Project Director on several significant infrastructure & energy projects, including the £2bn Thameslink Rolling Stock Project and the $900m Azura Power Project in Nigeria.
