New consultants added to Portland roster

Project and structured finance advisor Portland Advisers has announced that 3 new consultants have joined its growing team of experienced professionals as it expands its global offering.

Zoran Manović has 16 years' experience in project finance focussed on a broad spectrum of infrastructure PPPs in Europe, and the Middle East including waste water, transportation and social infrastructure. Prior to Portland Zoran worked for consultancy PPP Power House and before that held positions at ACWA, BAM and ING. He is based in Amsterdam.

Grant Baillie has joined Portland from Deloitte where he worked in the corporate finance and valuation team. He is an experienced financial modeller and is a qualified chartered accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountants Scotland (ICAS). Grant is based in Edinburgh.

Paul Olson has 20 years' experience in energy and infrastructure project finance. He is an experienced financial advisor and expert financial modeller with broad experience in the related analysis of commercial contracts and structures for major projects. In recent years Paul has advised a number of clients in Europe and the Middle East acting on both the bid and procurement side. Prior to Portland, he worked at Project Financing Solutions, a boutique advisory firm, and at Rolls-Royce Power Ventures. Paul is based in London.
