AGENDA - DAY 1 7TH OCTOBER

9:00 CEST	WELCOME REMARKS: SWISS TRADING AND SHIPPING ORGANISATION Florence Schurch, Secretary General, Swiss Trading & Shipping Association (STSA)
9:10 CEST	TRADERS PANEL Traders take the stage to tackle the latest opportunities and challenges within the commodity trade finance space. We have seen a recent surge in market demand with certain commodities and an impressive number of results for large traders during the first half of 2021. We will address whether the structural supply constraint will result in higher prices but not necessarily result in an increase in production resulting in market equilibrium? Which markets and commodities hold the most opportunities for the upcoming year? Tawfik Sadfi, Head of STF & STF Business Development, Gunvor Natalia Haas, Managing Partner, Mercator CommoditiesMark Daniels, Director, Scipio Tanya Epshteyn, Head of Structured Finance, Czarnikow Olivier Boujol, VP & Global Head - Structured Trade Finance, ADM Mark Daniels, Director, Scipio Moderator: Nigel Scott, Managing Director - Global Head Structured Trade Commodity Finance, Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (SMBC)
9:55 CEST	BANKERS PANEL With increased market risk, banks have tightening the belts by showing preference to larger more established clients to minimise the challenges surrounding compliance and regulatory issues. How can banks collaborate with other lenders and insurers to increase lending appetite for mid-size and SME traders? Is there growing pressure from NGOs and other pressure groups to push banks to finance certain commodities and vice versa? What would those implications mean for the commodity finance market overall? Bob Angliss, Head of Commodity Finance Business Centre, Bank of China Jean-Marie Le Fouest, Head of Commodity & Structured Trade Finance, EMEA, MUFG BANK Christine McWilliams, Global Head of Commodity and Energy, Treasury and Trade Solutions, Citi Orhan Gunes, Head of Commodity Trade Finance, Sberbank (Switzerland) AG Moderator: Maarten Koning, Managing Director, Global Head Trade and Commodity Finance, ING Bank
10:40 CEST	DEEP DIVE REPORT: DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION IN SWISS TRADING AND SHIPPING Maryana Stober, President - WISTA Switzerland and Associate General Counsel EMEA - ADM, WISTA (Switzerland) Jasmin Danzeisen, Senior Manager, PwC Moderator: Elsa Fucile, Content Management Coordinator, TXF
12:00 CEST	GREEN ON ME: THE ROLE OF GREEN TRADE CREDIT INSURANCE The CPRI market has largely stood by the commodity finance sector, but there has been some drop off as certain markets and parts of the sector are perceived as being overly risky. How are insurers' appetites evolving? What addition steps must potential clients take to guarantee insurers' support? With the increased perception of risk in the market, how can potential clients guarantee insurers' support? What tangible steps are being taken with step away from less sustainable commodities and what sort or criteria are they deploying both internally and externally to secure their success? Philippe de Villèle, Director, BPL Global Kerlijne Van Steen, Head of Single Risk, Credendo Moderator: Jonathan Bell, Editor-in Chief, TXF

12:40 CEST	BEST IN CLASS AWARDS CEREMONY We are delighted to be presenting the TXF Industry Choice Awards in Commodity Finance! Join this session to find out who the lucky winners are as we zoom in on top industry case studies and hand out those all-important trophies! These will be given across the following categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Top Rated Global Commodity Trade Finance Bank (1st, 2nd and 3rd place) • Most Supportive Bank Throughout the Covid-19 Pandemic • Most Committed Bank to ESG • Top Rated Bank by European Corporates Charles Osborne, Head of Commodities, TXF Aife Howse, Reporter, TXF
13:00 CEST	LUNCH
15:00 CEST	ESGS DILEMMA: QUESTION FIRE ROUNDS We put our panelists on stage to address three of the industry's most burning questions in relation to the ESGs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do countries have access to low-carbon technologies and the raw materials to expand green sectors? Which sectors cannot decarbonise ahead of the Carbon Border Tax? • How sustainable can supply chains realistically be, particularly in relation to their social impact? • What is needed for greater transparency with regards to ESG initiatives? How can approaches differ on a regional basis? Elsa Pernot, Global Head of HSEC, Gunvor Sandra Primiero, Managing Director, Deutsche Bank Jean-Jacques Poublot, Managing Director, UBS Alastair Northway, EMEA Head of Commodities, Citi Moderator: Aife Howse, Reporter, TXF
15:50 CEST	NO HIDING FROM CLIMATE CHANGE: DRIVING ACTION IN MARITIME TRADE The global commodities sector contributes to 50% of global greenhouse gas emissions. While the industry is causing significant problems for the environment, but it also could hold the key to saving it. For maritime and commodities trade to drive the move towards a sustainable economy, every financial and operational decision must take climate into account and that requires carbon emissions transparency throughout the supply chain. One of the biggest challenges in achieving this, and ultimately enabling a sustainable economy, is the acquisition of high-quality emission data and the integration of environmental impact monitoring into existing compliance systems and regulations. How are regulations shaping the future of green maritime trade? How can this be achieved and what technologies are available to make the transition to sustainable processes as smooth as possible? Adam Hearne, CEO & Co-Founder, CarbonChain Simon Ring, Global Head - Financial Markets Compliance, Pole Star
16:20 CEST	HOW CAN WE ENSURE THAT TRANSFORMATION PROJECTS DELIVER REAL BUSINESS VALUE? When it comes to transformation in commodity finance, the industry has historically been a bit of a rudderless ship with no clear idea of where to go, and no means to navigate there any way. As a result, solutions are often discovered by accident, or are forced upon firms, and we're left with a hodgepodge of digital tools and systems, siloed data and very little interoperability needed to enable meaningful automation. As the recent pandemic has compelled many organizations to implement quick digital fixes, the question is: can we now strengthen these workaround solutions and start actively driving the transformation process in a direction which brings measurable added value to users? Souleïma Baddi, CEO, Komgo
16:40 CEST	GAMESHOW: DEAL OR NO DEAL Top bankers take the stage to share their thoughts on three different hypothetical transactions and decide 'deal or no deal'. Stefan Böhlich, Global Head Structured Commodity Trade Finance, Commerzbank Steven de Vries Reilingh, Head of TCF Agri - Europe, Rabobank Moderator: John MacNamara, CEO & Chairman, Carshalton Commodities
17:30 CEST	COCKTAIL RECEPTION: Glow Bar Lounge, Hotel President Wilson As twilight settles in at the end of day 1, it's time to explore the enchanted forest at night, with the mead flowing and snacks aplenty! Continue the fun at our networking drinks conveniently located in the President Wilson.

AGENDA - DAY 2

8TH OCTOBER

8:55 CEST

OPENING REMARKS

Elsa Fucile, Content Management Coordinator, TXF

9:00
CEST

THE IMPACT OF NET ZERO ON THE OIL & GAS SECTOR

With the energy transition in full swing, we have already seen a cut in spend from various sources but is enough being done to combat demand rather than simply reduce financing? Will this cut in spend lead to a price spike for crude oil like we have seen previously with coal and iron ore? Jurisdictions such as Singapore are pivoting away from being a crude oil hub, yet others like China are actually increasing the domestic consumption of the product, what do these changes mean for the industry? Additionally, will oil producing nations increasing their output for the remainder of 2021 succeed in stabilizing prices? How can we incentivise future projects to be greener?

Julian Arbace, President, Commodity Trading Association (CTA)

Zomo Fisher, Vice President - Sustainability, Lundin Energy

Andrew Glass, Head of Sales & Partnerships, Viridios Capital

Christophe Riedi, Co-Founder, Climate Neutral Commodity

Moderator: Jonathan Bell, Editor-in Chief, TXF

9:40
CEST

GOING GLOBAL: ELECTRONIC TRANSACTION REFORMS

One of the biggest obstacles for implementing electronic transaction acts is the issue of cross-border implementation and standardisation. The momentum to push forward legal frameworks for electronic transactions began in Singapore and has spread globally. Countries with strong international legal influence such as the UK have demonstrated good faith by drafting proposals to reform existing legal frameworks to specifically outline the use of electronic documents in trade. Can we expect a domino effect of similar actions being taken in other countries and regions? How will this push digitalisation further?

ALTERNATIVE FINANCE: FROM SURVIVORS TO SAVIOURS

Smaller market players face the challenge of finding adequately priced financing. Alternative financiers have stepped up to the plate by providing the solutions their clients need. What is investor's appetite in the current environment and how is risk being priced? Is enough innovation and flexibility being provided?

Ozan Ozturk, Managing Director, Agrozan Commodities DMCC

Eric Van de Peer, Senior Portfolio Manager Private Debt, NN Investment Partner

Lillia Wernli, CEO & Partner, Maxwer Group

Tina Mavraki, Managing Director, Ingenios Ltd.

Moderator: Charles Osborne, Head of Commodities, TXF

CEST

THE ROLE OF COPPER IN THE ENERGY TRANSITION

The industry will continue to look for ways to become more sustainable. (Doctor) Copper is a prime example by being at the centre of a green apex, however how will the demand of similar resources shift with market players putting greater pressure on ESG compliance? Can these supply chains be fully sustainable and transparent? Furthermore, no new major copper mines have opened since 2015, is there enough supply available? What will be the role of other key minerals such as cobalt and nickel? How big of a role will copper play to help achieve the Paris Climate Agreement?

Pablo Gonzalez, Portfolio Manager, Independent Capital Group

Markus Nöthiger, Managing Partner, Enemco

Moderator: Alexander Peters, Group CFO, Arrowresources AG
